

It's No Longer A Secret That Trump's Committing Fraud

Nonpartisan Primary Election Candidate Chance Trahan Just Flipped The Entire Government On Its Head Without Even Flexing

LOS ANGELES - April 13, 2020 - PRLog -- Primary Election Candidate Chance Trahan started his day on Twitter with a commented tweet shared by Alyssa Milano that states that Donald Trump moved $1.9 million to his businesses that he has 100% interest in. The news shared alone was not only alarming enough to elicit a response from Chance, but was also shocking enough to make him not want to read it. It wasn't until Trahan was in bed that he decided to give the article posted in the tweet a read, but what he discovered was enough to send his campaign into overdrive.

"I've been saying this the whole time. This election is a total free for all. Allow me to explain. From what I understand, anyone can come along and put boosted numbers of fake donations and no one is there to stop them. Which means that my suspicions served me right about everyone lying about the amount of their received campaign contributions/donations. Everyone except for me," Trahan says.

Chance continues, "If the Federal Election Commission is inoperable, then this election is also a complete sham. Looks like I just won the election without even being elected once the majority understands what I just said, and we can cut the charades and face the fact that I'm winning."

"This is just another reason why Donald Trump is facing charges of treason & fraud. I wonder how many other politicians have committed fraud to get elected? Because, let's be honest, their blatant neglect of the issues we face is very telling, and guess who's coming to put a stop to all of this? Me. I am. I won't stand for this. This is corruption at its finest! And you better believe that I'm doing something about all of this as soon as I'm elected," Trahan states.

"I don't want to hear excuses whenever I get into the White House, I don't want to be explained how everything is supposed to work whenever I take a seat in the Oval Office, and I definitely don't want to sit around picking out drapes and a desk. Like the rest of the world that's experiencing a lockdown right now, I want to get directly to work so I can rightfully earn my money. Except there's one catch, I'm donating my yearly checks to veteran homelessness and I'll survive off the government funded entertainment allowance alone. I'm on a mission to correct the wrongs being done to taxpayers, because I too know what this feels like," concludes Chance.
